

OTHER ACTIVITIES TO ENJOY...

The Fairground will be open throughout the town from Friday through to Saturday evening.

8am – 3.30pm – Traditional Market – Delph and Midland Road

9am – 5.30pm – Swadlincote Library – Christmas Treasure Hunt

Find the festive clues around the library with a chance to win a prize! FREE and open to all children under 16.

9am – 8pm – Stan's Pals Doggie Deli – Midland Road

It's Christmas party time all day with free festive nibbles, sherry, fancy dress and human treats! Reptile related craft activities will be available outside the shop for all to enjoy, with the chance to meet the amazing creatures too.

10am – 4pm – Smith Partnership – High Street

Free mulled wine, festive treats and goodies to give away.

10am – 8pm – Sharpe's Christmas Craft Fair

Our popular annual craft fair, with local school children singing from 11am – 2pm.

Meet Santa in his grotto from 4pm – 7pm.

Hot food and our celebrated mulled wine will be available from 5pm in the courtyard.

11am – 3pm - Free mince pie and other Christmassy goodies

by Burton and South Derbyshire College catering students.

2pm – 9pm – The Dance and Music Centre, Delph Centre

Something for everyone, including Santa's grotto, cake stall, tombola, raffle, homemade Christmas gifts and hot drinks.

3.30pm – 9pm – Swadlincote Snowsport Centre

Watch Santa ski down the big new slope in a torch lit descent with his helpers! Santa will ski approx. 4.45pm and then make his way to his Grotto where he will meet and greet 120 children with a free gift!

Children are encouraged to bring their Christmas lists to give to Santa on the night. The elves will play games and get up to mischief with the children whilst they wait and of course there will be a visit from Poma the Penguin too!

Snacks and festive treats available in the Alpine Lodge.
